

2018 National Show Consignor Affidavit

Sale Manager: Fernando Mendez - 786-210-6544

I have been invited, and I have agreed, to consign one or more head of Devon cattle to the select breeder Show referenced above, scheduled for May 23, 2018. I understand that the objective of the show is to present to the public an opportunity to observe and potentially purchase high quality, Grass-raised Devon cattle that are fertile and in good health and, to that end, I specifically acknowledge and agree to comply with the following standards:

_____ (initial)

- All consigned cattle have been fed in compliance with the following USDA definition of a grass fed ruminant:
Grass and forage shall be the feed source consumed for the lifetime of the ruminant animal, with the exception of milk consumed prior to weaning. The diet shall be derived solely from forage consisting of grass (annual and perennial), forbs (e.g., legumes, Brassica), browse, or cereal grain crops in the vegetative (pre-grain) state.
**ANIMALS HAVE RECEIVED NO SUPPLEMENTS OTHER THAN HAY AND MINERAL FOR AT LEAST 150 DAYS PRIOR TO EVENT*
- All Show cattle have never been administered a growth hormone or sub-therapeutic antibiotic
- All cattle imported to the State of Virginia for consignment to the show meet all of Virginia's normal requirements for import and will be accompanied by a certificate of veterinary inspection (CIV) documenting official animal ID and all required tests and certifications.
- All cattle have received IBR, BVD, PI3, BRSV virus vaccines
- All cattle consigned as purebred Devon must be registered with Red Devon USA breeder association at the time of consignment and the records are publically accessible through the website maintained by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation (CLRC)
- Consignors are responsible for providing complete and accurate information, including high resolution photos, related to the cattle they consign no later than April 1, 2018.
- Upon arrival at the site all cattle will be visually inspected by the Show Manager and may be disqualified from the show if, in his sole discretion, the animal is not in compliance with show and/or Devon breed standards . Animals will be scratched that exhibit any signs of illness or injury.
- All show cattle sold within 60 days of the sale shall be subject to a 4% commission fee.
- Show animals are required to pay an entry fee. $75 for the first animal, $50 for animals 2-5, $25 per head, animals 6 and above. Owners of disqualified animals will receive reimbursement; scratched animals will receive no refund.

- Classes shall be determined by the sale manager based on entries. Animals will be grouped with others most similar in type and kind.
- If inadequate numbers of animals are consigned to warrant any aspect of the show, the show manager may, at his discretion, cancel any portion of the event.
- The Judges shall determine the winners in whatever manner he sees fit. The Judges and show manager's decisions are final.
- Any disputes will be settled by the show manager whose decisions shall be final.
